Recovery of Take-home Pay Only

(1) Under the law, any award made to plaintiff in this case is not subject to Federal or State income tax. Therefore, in computing the amount of damages which you may find the plaintiff is entitled to recover for past or future lost earnings, plaintiff is entitled to recover only the net, after-tax income. In other words, the plaintiff is entitled to recover only "take-home pay" which you find was lost in the past or will lose in the future.
