

CV 9.02

Experiments, Research and Investigation

(1) Remember that you must make your decision based only on the evidence that you saw and heard here in court. Do not try to gather any information about the case on your own while you are deliberating.

(2) For example, do not conduct any experiment inside or outside the jury room; do not bring any book, like a dictionary, or anything else with you to help you with your deliberations; do not conduct any independent research, reading or investigation about the case; and do not visit any place that was mentioned during the trial.

(3) Make your decision based only on the evidence that you saw and heard here in court.
