

CV 9.05

Verdict Form

(1) I have prepared verdict forms for your use. A verdict form is simply the written notice of your decision. Whatever decision you reach in this case must be the unanimous decision of all of you. When all of you agree upon a verdict, it will be received as your verdict. [EXPLAIN FORM]

(2) When you answer one or all of these questions regarding one of the plaintiffs, you should then answer the questions for the other plaintiff. Your foreperson should sign and date both verdict forms.

(3) After both verdict forms are completed, your foreperson should give a written note to the bailiff. That person will deliver that note to me, you will be called into the courtroom, and your foreperson will deliver the verdict to me in the courtroom. The parties will then be informed of your verdicts.